2. ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Memento of Captain Henry B. O'Reilly, of the First Excelsior Regiment, who fell in the Battle of Williamsburg, the first Battle of the Army of the Potomac. 8vo, wrappers. Privately printed, 1862. 20
Contains long poems by Wm. Hosmer.

3. ARNOLD (ISAAC N.)—Author of "The History of Abraham Lincoln and the Overthrow of Slavery." Original Autograph Manuscript of parts of pages 413 and 414, describing the Invasion of Maryland by Gen. Lee and the Command of the Federal Army being transferred from Halleck to Meade. 2 pp. 4to. [Chicago, 1866.] 50

4. — Three Pages of his Original Manuscript of "The History of Lincoln." Being Lincoln's Speech on July 4th, in answer to a Serenade given him after several recent victories in Virginia. With Autograph Letter from Arnold to Mr. Boyd laid in. 4 pp. Chicago, 1867. 11c

5. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding his Biography of Lincoln, saying, "You are quite right in refusing to incorporate the Ann Rutledge story into your book. I have conversed with Robert and Mrs. Lincoln and others about his affair and I send you an extract from my forthcoming work giving the result, truthfully I believe." 1 p. 8vo. Chicago, 1870. 50

Laid in is the very interesting extract referred to by Mr. Arnold and written by him in pencil on 2 pages, 4to. "There is a tradition that while residing at New Salem Mr. Lincoln entertained a boy's fancy for a prairie Beauty, by the name of Ann Rutledge. . . . Some Romance and some sensational exaggeration has been published in regard to this early attachment of Lincoln," etc. 6

6. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding the Poem on Lincoln published in the "London Punch," adding, "If I live I shall restore my Library and execute my design of publishing the Speeches and Writings (of Lincoln)," etc. 2 pp. 4to. Chicago, 1872. 60

7. — Lincoln's Biographer. A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding the Lincoln Relics. "The bed-stead is not to my taste but the banks etc. would be more attractive," etc. 2 pp. 8vo. Chicago, 1877. 100

The Anderson Auction Co.

30 8. ASTOR (J. J.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd ordering a copy of his Poem on President Lincoln. 1 p. 12mo. N. Y. 1868

2 9. BADEAU (R.—of New Rochelle). A. L. S., sending a copy of Erskine N. White's Eulogy of Lincoln and asking for its return. 1 p. 12mo. New Rochelle, 1869.

55 10. BARTLETT (JOHN RUSSELL—Bibliographer of the "Literature of the Rebellion." A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of the Governor of Rhode Island's Proclamation on the death of Lincoln, adding, "You will notice in this statement that Mr. Seward died from the effect of his wound. A telegram stating this was actually received by Gov Smith from Washington . . . The R. I Legislature has passed no resolution on the death of Mr. Lincoln," etc., etc. Providence, Secretary of State's Office, 1867.

30 11. — A. L. S. to Andrew Boyd in reference to Lincoln's Addresses and asking for a copy of Duganne's "Heroic Succession." 2 pp. 8vo. Providence, 1868.

30 12. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding Professor Stoeve's Eulogy on Lincoln, and explaining some references in his own Bibliography of Lincoln Eulogies. 2 pp. 8vo. Providence, Secretary's Office, 1867.

20 13. BARTOL (C. A.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd informing him that his only published discourse on Mr. Lincoln's death was printed in Boston, in a volume with many others. 1 p. 12mo. Jacksonville, 1869.

Refers to "Sermons Preached in Boston," 1865.

125 14. BEAUREGARD (G. T.—Dist. Confederate General). A. L. S. to Gen. C. M. Wilcox regarding the defense of Petersburg, an account of which he was about to publish. Also says, "I am informed that Grant having been asked if the U. S. Government would offer any opposition to any ex-Confederate officers taking service in other Countries if applied to, said, on the Contrary, that he would consider it a compliment to the Country 'for he knew now no North and No South.' I wish he would always act up to that Sentiment," etc. 3 pp. 8vo. New Orleans, 1874.

A particularly interesting letter.

50 15. BLAKE (JOHN FALKNER—Author of a Sermon on the Services and Death of Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of his sermon and informing him that he had recently changed his name to John Blake Falkner, under which he wanted it catalogued. 2 pp. 8vo. Bridgeport, 1870.

The Anderson Auction Co.

16. BOARDMAN (GEORGE DANA). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, telling him that his addresses on the Death of Lincoln were out of print a long time ago. 1 p. 8vo. Phil. 1869. 40

17. BOKER (GEO. H.—Author of many Civil War Poems). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding the Union League pamphlets on Lincoln, etc. 1 p. 8vo. Union League House, 1869. 200

18. BOOTH (JOHN WILKES). A. L. S. from Booth's Friend, M. W. Canning, to Mr. Boyd, informing him that he could not give him any of Booth's letters. "At the time of the Assassination I was arrested and all correspondence between myself and J. W. B. was taken from me by the authorities and never returned. I know no one who could favor you." 1 p. 12mo. Opera House, Pittsburg, 1868. 1 40

19. — Autograph signed, check on his banker, Jay Cook, for fifty dollars. Washington, Dec., 1864. 10 25

One of the seven so-called "Blood-Money Checks." Like all Booth's documents and letters, of excessive rarity.

20. BOTTA (VINCENZO—Author of "Resolutions on the Death of President Lincoln, offered at the meeting of the Italian Residents of New York"). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regretting that he could not send him a copy of the resolutions, having none of them left. 2 pp. 12mo. N. Y. 1870. 45

21. BRINKERHOFF (GEO. M.—City Comptroller of Springfield, Ill.). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regarding the proceedings, proclamations, etc., of the Memorial Associations. "I have always been and am now a warm friend and advocate of Mr. Lincoln's principles, no less than himself. Had Mr. Lincoln been spared we would not now be cursed by A. J., although I once voted for him. I now regret it exceedingly," etc. 1 p. 4to. Springfield, 1867. 60

22. BROCKETT (L. P.—Author of The Life and Times of Abraham Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd about his book and referring him to his publishers for a portion of the manuscript. 24. BROWN (JOHN — of Ossawattomie). Autograph Endorsement, "Fredk. Brown's Account with John Brown" affixed to a letter from his brother Frederick, written to comply with a request for this scarce autograph. 1 p. 8vo. Lodi, 1876.

Rare.

25. BROWN (NATHAN — Author of De Histori ov Magnus Maharba (Abraham) and de Blak Dragon and other Lincoln items). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd referring to his book on Lincoln. "I am glad you like my closing chapter of Magnus. My friends told me that it never would do to write Lincoln above Washington, but time only convinces me more and more that he will in after ages fill the more conspicuous niche, not, perhaps, because he was any better or greater man than Washington but because he had the OPPORTUNITY to do a mighty thing on a more extensive scale, and he DID it," etc., etc. 4 pp. 8vo. N. Y. 1869.

26. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him the large Emancipation Proclamation, by Smith of Philadelphia. 1 p. 12mo. N. Y. 1869.

27. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of his book and explaining its origin and reception, also adding that he had copious notes of a conversation with President Lincoln on the evening before Emancipation. 3 pp. 8vo. N. Y. 1869.

28. BURNETT (H. S.—One of the Judges at the Trial of the Lincoln Assassins). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, giving a long and interesting account of his being summoned by Mr. Stanton to serve on the Commission appointed to try the conspirators, his being one of the Special Judge Advocates during the trial, and superintending the publication of the proceedings after its close. 3 pp. 8vo. Cincinnati, 1867.

29. BUTLER (GEN. BENJAMIN F.) L. S. to Mr. Boyd, informing him that "there have been no documents printed by the Committee investigating the Assassination of President Lincoln." 1 p. 8vo. Lowell, 1867.

30. BUTLER (HENRY E.—Author of A Funeral Discourse on Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regretting that all the copies of his Discourse had already been disposed of and he knew of no way in which one could be procured. 2 pp. 8vo. Keeseville, N. Y., 1869.

31. CARNAHAN (D. T.—Author of an Oration on Lincoln, delivered before the Citizens of Gettysburg). A. L. S. from J. E. Wible, the printer, to Mr. Boyd, sending a copy of Carnahan's Oration, and saying that he printed the book, but that it was "very scarce at present." 2 pp. 12mo. Gettysburg, 1867.

The Anderson Auction Co.

32. CHAPIN (E. H.—Author of a Sermon on Lincoln). A. L. S. from Mrs. E. H. Chapin to Mr. Boyd, telling him that the Sermon preached on the occasion of Lincoln's Death was mostly extemporaneous. 1 p. 8vo. N. Y. 1868. 25

33. CLARK (ALEXANDER—Author of a Sermon on the Death of Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, telling him his Address was out of print and could not be supplied, but would be republished in Philadelphia. 1 p. 8vo. Pittsburg, 1868. 55

34. COLFAX (SCHUYLER—one of the Pall-Bearers at Lincoln's Funeral). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regarding his portrait. "I have no copies, but it is in Moore's Life of me, published by Peterson, and also in Peterson's Life and Services of Prest. Lincoln." 1 p. 12mo. Wash. 1869. 75

35. COLMAN (GEO. W.—Author of "The Assassination of the President"). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of his book. 1 p. 12mo. Acton, Mass., 1867. 100

36. CONNESS (JOHN B.—of California, one of Lincoln's Pall-Bearers). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him his photograph, which is laid in. Wash. 1868. (2 pieces.) 50

37. CUYLER (S.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a full account of the gold medal presented to Mrs. Lincoln by the French Republicans after the President's death, and also of the 100 bronze copies he had had sent him for presentation purposes to persons prominent in the War, etc. 3 pp. 8vo. N. Y. 1870. 200

An extremely interesting Lincoln item.

38. DAILY (J. P.—Author of a Discourse on the Death of Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, telling him that his Address had been printed in pamphlet form, together with two sermons by Revs. Swain and Janeway, etc. 2 pp. 8vo. Woodbridge, N. J., 1869. 50

38*. DAVIS (REAR ADMIRAL C. H.—appointed as representative of the Navy to accompany Lincoln's remains from Washington to Springfield). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, complying with his request for autograph and referring to his valuable collection. 1 p. 8vo. Observatory, Wash. 1866. 20

39. DAVIS (DAVID—Delegate to the Chicago Convention that nominated Lincoln and afterwards appointed by him a Justice of the Supreme Court). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, informing him that he was about exhausted of everything concerning Mr. Lincoln, but if there was anything left he would send it. . . . "I was never in partnership with Mr. Lincoln, though I practised in the same Courts that he did for some years and was for many years Judge of the County, Mr. L. continuing his practise." 1 p. 8vo. Wash. 1869, 75

The Anderson Auction Co.

600-
40. DAVIS (JEFFERSON). A. L. S. from John William French, Professor at WEST POINT, to Jefferson Davis, giving him complete and detailed information about the courses of studies then enforced. "If we did not perfectly understand each others feelings such intervals of Silence would chill any friendship. The change of Program fell on me like a thunderbolt. It made me very unhappy. It took away the object for which I came here," etc. With pencilled postscript, "Do remember under what strict confidence I complain. I would not be unjust. I want no difficulty." 18 pp. West Point, 1859.

An extremely interesting West Point item, Jefferson Davis and most of the other Confederate Generals having graduated there.

300-
41. — "Jeff. Davis! As Women and Children." Full-length caricature of the Confederate President, dressed as a woman. Underneath is inscribed, "Is not your Government more magnanimous than to hunt down Women and Children?" 4to. [Phil. 1865.]

30
42. — A. L. S. from L. L. Doty, Secretary to Senator Morgan, regarding documents on the capture of Davis. 1 p. 8vo. U. S. Senate Chamber, 1868.

75
7
43. DIX (JOHN A.—distinguished Civil War Soldier). A. L. S. to James Everard, refusing to attend a meeting to ratify the nomination of James J. O'Brien as Senator. "TAMMANY HALL can with no propriety claim support for its nominations until it has purged itself of the corruption of which its chief managers have been guilty. . . . No political system can stand under such a load of INFAMY," etc., etc. 3 pp. 8vo. N. Y. 1871.

A splendid political letter.

75
44. DOTY (A. L.) A. L. S. to Mr. Bliss. "The Lincoln Tribute Book cannot be obtained, I regret to say. Indeed I have found it quite impossible to procure a Copy for my own Library and Governor Morgan has thus far failed to secure one for the Union League Club," etc. 2 pp. 12mo. U. S. Senate Chamber, 1868.

225-
45. DOUGLAS (STEPHEN A.—Presidential Candidate and U. S. Senator). Signed Endorsement on Official Envelope. "This Envelope contains my last Will and Testament, which is not to be opened by anyone until after my death and then only in the presence of my wife and David J. Rhodes of Cleveland Ohio in case they shall survive me and can conveniently be assembled. S. A. Douglas Wash. 1859."

25-
46. — Addresses on the death of Hon. Stephen A. Douglas delivered in the Senate and House of Representatives on Tuesday, July 9, 1861. 8vo, wrappers. Wash. 1861.
Scarce.

The Anderson Auction Co.

47. DOUGLASS (CHARLES R.—Son of Frederick Douglass, the Negro Orator). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, telling him that his Father's "Lecture on the Assassination of Lincoln is not in print, and I doubt very much whether he has any of Mr. Lincoln's writings that he would like to part with." 1 p. 12mo. Rochester, 1866. 25

48. EDWARDS (H. L.—Author of a Discourse on the Death of Lincoln).—A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, forwarding a copy of same, requesting the remittance of thirty cents for it; also wishing him "success in his laudable labor of love." 1 p. 12mo. North Middleboro, Mass. [1870]. 5

49. ELLIS (RUFUS—of Boston, author of a Lincoln Funeral Sermon). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, informing him that his address had been published with others in "Sermons Preached in Boston on the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln," etc. 1 p. 8vo. Bost. [1870]. 40

50. EVERETT (CHARLES CARROLL—Author of a Sermon and a Eulogy on Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regarding the two pamphlets, and regretting he had only a copy of one to send him. 2 pp. 8vo. Bangor, 1868. 60

51. FARRAGUT (ADMIRAL DAVID G.) Signature approving disbursements for the U. S. steamer "Richmond." Signed by Farragut as Rear-Admiral Commanding the Mississippi and Gulf Blockading Squadron. New Orleans, 1863. Rare. 25

52. FISK (J. H.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of Daniel Clark's Eulogy on Lincoln, and mentioning that it was the only copy procurable. 1 p. 8vo. Manchester, 1869. 25

53. FORD'S THEATRE. A. L. S. from W. H. James, of the Theatre, offering to sell him for $15.00 the Programme used on the night on which Lincoln was killed, and also the key of the box in which Lincoln was shot for $100.00. 2 pp. 12mo. Wash. 1870. 2 10

54. — A. L. S. from W. H. James to Mr. Boyd, offering him a playbill of March 18, 1865, being the "last time that John Wilkes Booth ever appeared on any stage to perform and on which occasion he appeared in 'The Apostate.'" 2 pp. 8vo. Wash. 1870. 30

55. — Affidavit signed by W. H. James, late 1st Lt. and Q. M., 1st New Jersey Cavalry, U. S. Vol., testifying that the Bill of Ford's Theatre dated 14th April, 1865, "was the bill he held in his hands at the time the shot was fired which deprived Abraham Lincoln of his life." Acknowledged by J. T. K. Plant. 1 p. 4to. Wash. 1870. 2 00

The Anderson Auction Co.

67
56. FORD'S THEATRE. Complimentary Season Pass issued to Major B. B. French from "Oct. 1st, 1864, to June 1st, 1865." Signed Jas. R. Ford for Jno. T. Ford. In roan case lettered "Ford's Theatre." Wash. 1864.

Interesting relic. Maj. French was a personal friend of Lincoln's and author of a poem on his death.

70
57. — Ticket for the Benefit of Jos. S. Sessford, ticket seller at Ford's, July 6, 1864.

90
58. — A. L. S. from J. T. Ford to Mr. Boyd, saying, "The only bills I have of the eventful night you name are in scrap-books at home. Should I find more I will save one for you with pleasure." 1 p. 12mo. Balt. 1866.

95
59. — A. L. S. from J. S. Sessford to Mr. Boyd, offering to sell him "Tickets used at the Theatre at the time of the Assassination, pieces of the lace curtain and wallpaper of the box in which the President was shot. I have the key of the box, but do not care to part with it unless I can get a good price for it," etc., etc. 2 pp. 8vo. Wash. 1870.

50
60. FORD (J. T.—of Ford's Theatre). Autograph letter in the third person stating that he had "but one autograph letter of J. W. BOOTH'S; most of his papers were seized and many destroyed in 1865, others retained," etc. 1 p. 8vo. Balt. 1869.

75
61. FORNEY (JOHN W.—Intimate Friend of Lincoln, Secretary of the Senate). A. L. S. on private and personal affairs. 1 p. 4to. Phil. 1859.

500
62. FRENCH (B. B.—Major in the Civil War and Friend of Lincoln). A Letter and a short Poem on the Death of Abraham Lincoln. Vignette portrait of Lincoln. 4 pp. 8vo. Albany, 1870. Rare.

50
63. FRENCH (B. B.—Clerk of the House of Representatives, Author of a Lincoln Poem, etc.). A. L. S. regarding the Postmaster of the House circulating Whig documents and speeches, and saying he was born and educated a "New Hampshire Democrat." 3 pp. 4to. Wash. 1844.

70
64. FRENCH (MAJOR B. B.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him several Lincoln mementos. "If ever I loved a man that man was Abraham Lincoln, and there is scarcely anything I would not do to honor his memory." 2 pp. 8vo. Wash. 1869.

30
1
65. FULLER (RICHARD—Author of a Sermon on the Death of Lincoln preached in Baltimore). Manuscript summary of the Sermon, with Doctor Fuller's private note that it had never been printed. 4 pp. folio. Balt. 1865.

The Anderson Auction Co.

66. GARRISON (WM. LLOYD). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of his address on the ASSASSINATION OF LINCOLN. "On reperusing that address I see no occasion to make any alterations, as it was carefully printed at the time," etc. 1 p. 8vo. Roxbury, 1870. 70

67. GOBRIGHT (L. A.—Agent N. Y. Ass'd Press). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, stating that he had made a "complete account of the incidents on the way to Springfield connected with the transportation, etc., of Mr. Lincoln's body," and that he could publish an article for "Lincolniana" on "Mr. Lincoln and the Press." 2 pp. 8vo. Wash. 1867. 50

68. GRANT (GENERAL). Manuscript Orders regarding Confederate Deserters. "Deserters from the Confederate Army who deliver themselves up to United States Forces hereafter will be furnished free transportation and subsistence to their homes if within the lines of the Federal Army," etc. Written in Grant's autograph, with his corrections, on headquarter's official paper. 1 p. 8vo. 1864. 5-25
Fine specimen.

69. — Grant and Schurz on the South. Letter of General Grant to Andrew Johnson concerning affairs at the South. 8vo, sewed. 1865. 75

70. HALE (EDWARD EVERETT). A. L. S. from C. L. Tallant to Mr. Boyd, saying "Mr. Hale wishes me to say that he has published nothing concerning Mr. Lincoln except 'The President's Words,'" etc. 1 p. 12mo. Bost. 1869. 30

71. HAMMOND (JOHN G.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, sending him a copy of his "Address on the Death of Lincoln." "I do not know by what accident I have been taken for a clergyman, I am a lawyer by profession." 1 p. 8vo. Iowa State University, 1870. 100

72. HARRINGTON (GEORGE—Appointed by Andrew Johnson to take command of Washington and arrange Lincoln's Funeral). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd. "On Saturday morning at the first Cabinet meeting, with Mr. Johnson as president, I was at the suggestion of Mr. Stanton placed in command of Washington, and to me was confided without restriction or appeal, the burial of Mr. Lincoln," etc., with references to the badges worn. 3 pp. 8vo. Wash. 1870. 70

72*. HARRINGTON (GEORGE—Chief Marshal at Lincoln Funeral, Acting Secretary of State, etc.). L. S. giving details about the situation of the Confederates, the running of the blockade at Vicksburg, the falling of gold, the destitution of the country under Rebel control, etc. 3 pp. 4to. Treasury Dept., 1863. 25

Marked unofficial and confidential.

The Anderson Auction Co.

73. HANKS (DENNIS F.—Abraham Lincoln's Uncle). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd regarding a watch chain he had that Lincoln had owned for 20 years, with a drawing of the same, and also saying where Mr. Boyd could probably obtain some of the rails of the Lincoln cabin. 1 p. folio. Charleston, Ill., 1870.

An interesting and scarce autograph. Hanks at the Chicago Convention entered the wigwam with one of the celebrated rails split by Lincoln, and started the furore which resulted in his nomination.

74. HANNA (JOHN—of New York). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd relating to a small pamphlet printed privately for distribution in Cuba, "which contributed not a little to the state of things in existence there at present; it is a great glorification of Mr. Lincoln and all his acts," etc. 2 pp. 8vo. N. Y. 1870.

75. HARTLEY (J. F.—Assistant Sec'y of the Treasury). L. S. to Theron Luce transmitting a manuscript copy of the early order of the Treasury Department which was issued in printed form on the occasion of the death of President Lincoln. 1 p. 4to. Treasury Dept., 1870.

76. HAYDEN (CAROLINE A.—of Boston, Author of a Poem on Lincoln and other Works). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd wishing him success in his bibliography, and stating that her Lincoln poem was "written, published and 500 copies sold within five days." On the inside sheet of the letter she has transcribed and signed 12 lines of the poem. 2 pp. 8vo. Bost. 1867.

77. HEPWORTH (GEORGE—Author of two Sermons on Lincoln). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regretting he could not send him a copy of his pamphlet, having none left. 1 p. 8vo. N. Y. 1870.

78. HERNDON (W. H.—Lincoln's Law Partner). A. L. S. to Andrew Boyd, thanking him for a copy of the New York Lincoln Obsequies. "Our own City, Lincoln's home, has not moved in this matter; it must and shall," etc. 1 p. 4to. Springfield, 1867.

79. — A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, regarding the "Life of Lincoln, by Scripps." The title-page of Scripps' Campaign Life of Lincoln reads thus, "Life of Abraham Lincoln." This is all—no preface, no introduction, etc. It goes right at the centre, shoots straight for the object, "I have not got far enough along in my Life of Lincoln to settle down on a title-page, etc.," and relating in full a curious anecdote of Lincoln's being kicked senseless by a mule in the middle of a sentence, which he concluded on returning to consciousness several hours afterwards. 2 pp. 4to. Springfield: Law Office of Herndon and Orendorff, 1869.

An unusually interesting letter of Lincoln's biographer.

The Anderson Auction Co.

80. HERNDON (W. H.) A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, in reference to the N. Y. Obsequies of Lincoln. 1 p. 4to. Springfield, 1867. 115

81. HOLT (JOSEPH—Judge Advocate General). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd. . . . "You ask if it would be possible to get a piece of that writing of Booth's—referring I presume to the Diary found on his person when he was killed. I must answer decidedly in the negative. That Diary is preserved here in the special keeping of this Bureau and its mutilation could not be allowed for any purpose or in any degree." 1 p. 8vo. Wash. 1869. 340

82. — Letter to Boyd regarding the Trial of the Lincoln Assassins, stating: "I am aware of no report of the Judge Advocate General in which the 'details' of the assassination of the President were given. His report reviewing the record of the trial of the assassins was very brief, and presented no details beyond those formally introduced into the charge and specification on which the assassins were tried," etc., etc. 2 pp. 4to. 295. WELLES (GIDEON—Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy). A. L. S. to Mr. Boyd, saying "Such letters or writings of PRESIDENT LINCOLN as I have of interest I should be reluctant to part with, and of mere autographs you have an abundance already. It was my fortune to be associated with him in personal and official intimacy at an eventful period. I saw him in joy and sorrow and witnessed his expiring breath. Friends and admirers have sought mementos of him until I know not that I have any writing of the great Martyr to the Cause of the Union, with which I would willingly part." 2 pp. 8vo. Hartford, 1870.

Fine specimen. Full autograph letters written by Secretary Welles are extremely uncommon.

Extract from the Will of Edmond de Goncourt:

(Trans.)

"My wish is that my Drawings, my Prints, my Curiosities, my Books—in a word these things of art which have been the joy of my life—shall not be consigned to the cold tomb of a museum, and subjected to the stupid glance of the careless passer-by; but I require that they shall all be dispersed under the hammer of the Auctioneer, so that the pleasure which the acquiring of each one of them has given me shall be given again, in each case, to some inheritor of my own tastes."
